The University of New Hampshire's Location

A classic college town in a seacoast setting

Durham is an idyllic New England college location with a small-town friendliness and welcoming nature that pairs perfectly with the proximity to big-city opportunities. New Hampshire and Maine's rocky beaches are just moments away. Head north and in an hour you're in New England ski country; take the bus, train or a car one hour south, and you're in the heart of bustling Boston.

- Distributed electronically and via hard copies

REPORTING SEXUAL VIOLENCE AND HARASSMENT UNH FACULTY, STAFF & Graduate Students QUICK GUIDE

What should be reported? All instances of sexual violence must be reported. At UNH, sexual violence includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, unwanted sexual contact, sexual misconduct, domestic violence, relationship abuse, dating violence, and stalking (including cyber-stalking).

Who Must Report? UNH Mandatory Reporters are required to report. Mandatory Reporters include: all UNH faculty and staff members, coaches, teaching assistants, research assistants, hall directors, resident assistants, community assistants, and student workers who have University jobs having leadership, and/or supervisor responsibilities, and/or who mentor other students (e.g., Center for Academic Resources (C-FAR) academic mentors and tutors, Student Senate leaders, UNH Police safety escorts, youth camp counselors, and recreation department team captains). The ONLY exceptions to this rule are the student who experiences sexual violence, and privileged confidential support service providers at SHARPP, Health and Wellness, Psychological and Counseling Services, other sexual assault support agencies, ordained counselors (i.e. UNH Chaplains Association), and the Employee Assistance Program.

How Should I Report?

- If someone is in danger, call 911 immediately.
- During business hours 8:00am-5:00pm M-F: call UNH Title IX Coordinator, Donna Marie Sorrentino at (603) 862-2930 / (603) 862-1527 (TTY).
- If the UNH Title IX Coordinator (or designee) is not immediately available to speak to, OR it is outside the business hour 8:00am-5:00pm M-F, go to TitleIX-incident.unh.edu

Unless you report directly in accord with the above, you will not have fulfilled your legal obligations. No other anonymous reporting resources such as ReportIt! or LiveSafe app or individual or offices, including your supervisor, may be substituted. You cannot keep incidents of sexual violence confidential even if the person(s) requests that you do so or tells you they will be contacting appropriate authorities and/or privileged confidential support service providers.

When Should I Report? Immediately.

How Can I Get Further Information? For more information about sexual violence reporting, and what happens after a report is made go to <https://www.unh.edu/affirmativeaction/title-ixsexual-violence> or contact UNH Title IX Coordinator Donna Marie Sorrentino dms@unh.edu or at 603-862-2930/ 603-862-1527 (TTY).
