

Graduate College

If You Build It, Will They Come? Improving Graduate Student Participation in Campus Professional Development

Assistant Dean Jennifer Teitle

July 11, 2022

at FIELD of DREAMS GEICO

GEICO

GEICO

FOX

GEICO

T-Mobile

mlb.com

MAKING IT MEMO

Think back to one powerful professional development activity or event from your own time in graduate school. Describe what you believe made memorable?

(Pitching you a question)

After 2008...

- Immediacy with jobs crisis
- Expectations from students
- Increasing recognition of barriers
- Pressure from large funders

Pause: Our Roadmap

Reflect

Challenges

Big Idea

Approaches

"They asked, we built it, but..."

- Program culture
- Time/Trust
- Grad specific
- Representation
- "I already know this"

”

And Now?

Pandemic
Racial & Social Justice
Wealth Gap
Mental Health Crisis
Burnout
Great Resignation

In-Person Remote?
Hybrid?
Asynchronous?

Early results highlight the success of remote learning and in-person social events!

Task-based

Relationship-based

Was your powerful PD example task-based or relationship-based? (no wrong answers!)

Approach 1: PD "Menus"

- Opportunities
 - Anticipating gaps in campus needs
 - Intro to Grad Studies
 - Individualized Development Plans
- Challenges
 - Requires a team or collaborators
 - Managing quality and assessment
 - Structure for delivery

Would this approach resonate at your institution?

Approach 2: Faculty-Led Collaborations

- Opportunities
 - Better alignment with grad experience
 - Faculty development
 - Culture development
- Challenges
 - Models
 - Equity and service
 - Sustainability

Would this approach resonate at
your institution?

Approach 3: Peer-Led Communities

- Opportunities
 - Graduate student leadership
 - Peer accountability
 - Social supports for learning
- Challenges
 - Models
 - Equity and service
 - Sustainability

Would this approach resonate at
your institution?

Graduate College

Leadership for Relationship-Based PD

- Awareness of the past, present, and future of graduate education and barriers to student success
- Acknowledging who benefits from current systems
- Articulating a student-centered vision for today's graduate students
- Supporting staff professionals
 - Ethical workplaces with credit and naming work
 - Investing in staff professional development
 - Creating pathways for staff careers

Thank you

